Bloomberg Ranks Whitmer & Worrall Among Top-Performing Lobbying Firms of 2019

Washington, D.C. – In April 2020, Bloomberg Government named Whitmer & Worrall as one of the nation’s “top-performing” lobbying firms of 2019. This is the second time in three years that the firm has achieved this recognition having been named a “top-performing firm” in 2017 as well.

In order to develop the list of top-performers, Bloomberg measured lobbying firm performance against five business metrics. Among these metrics were annual revenue growth and client retention. Whitmer & Worrall ranked in the annual report’s “high-performing” firms category.

Firm partner Martin Whitmer stated, “We are honored to rank a second time among Bloomberg Government’s top-performing lobbying firms. Our firm is committed to our clients’ long-term success and ensuring that our service offerings meet their strategic objectives.”

Firm Partner Tom Worrall added, “The senior members of our team bring proven expertise to our clients on the challenges they face, and are committed to delivering their expected results. The report is a strong indication of our firm’s success in developing winning strategies for our clients.”
